From the Study

James 4:11-12 (The Message)

11-12 Don't bad-mouth each other, friends. It's God's Word, his Message, his Royal Rule, that takes a beating in that kind of talk. You're supposed to be honoring the Message, not writing graffiti all over it. God is in charge of deciding human destiny. Who do you think you are to meddle in the destiny of others?

What we say about others is very important, because it should bring encouragement and build them up in strength spiritually and emotionally. Unfortunately, we are not always good at saying positive things about, or to, other people.

We might ask the question, "Well what are they saying about us?" We are only responsible for what we say, however, how we choose to live and what we choose to do can shape how others speak about us.

I wise saying I remember from my childhood was, 'If you can't think of anything good to say about someone, then don't say anything at all.'

Be blessed and be a blessing this month in the mighty name of Jesus,

Pastor Phil.

Lord Jesus, help us to consider the things we say; help us to be encouraging to others. Help us to build our character to reflect Jesus, so that others may see Him in us in what we do and say.

Thank You Lord, in Jesus' name, Amen.

February update

We're into a new year and hopefully you are still keeping to your resolutions... but if not, you can still join in with this one.

Make the most of nature and enjoy it in a more intentional way. Here's a few ideas:

- spot winter wildlife- it's still a great time to be outdoors and spotting what you can.
- Bring nature into your home. Plant or buy a herb or flower as a reminder of our responsibility to look after God's earth.
- Write or draw about something that inspires you in nature.
